January 19 Test Org, (the "User")

The User expressly acknowledges having read and understood this Mandate for the Rick Hansen Foundation Accessibility Certification™ Registry (the "Registry"), and agrees to use the Registry in the manner set out therein.

By clicking "Agree" the User is agreeing to these terms which apply if the User chooses to access or use the Registry.

IF YOU ARE ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT ON BEHALF OF A COMPANY OR OTHER LEGAL ENTITY, YOU REPRESENT THAT YOU HAVE THE AUTHORITY TO BIND SUCH ENTITY TO THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS, IN WHICH CASE THE TERM "USER" WILL REFER TO SUCH ENTITY. IF YOU DO NOT HAVE SUCH AUTHORITY, OR IF YOU DO NOT AGREE WITH THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS, YOU MUST NOT ACCEPT THIS MANDATE AND MAY NOT USE THE REGISTRY.

All intended users of this Registry are hereby informed of the Registry's limited and focused mandate relating to the listing and delisting of properties that have received a rating and/or certification in accordance with the Rick Hansen Foundation Accessibility Certification™ ("RHFAC") Program and agree to use this Registry in a manner that is consistent with, and not contrary to, the following mandate:

1. The Registry is intended to serve as a public domain for the display of ratings and/or certifications issued in accordance with the RHFAC Program to facilitate transparency, accuracy, consistency, completeness and relevance in accessibility requirements.

1.1. The Registry is expected to benefit building or property owners and stakeholders by providing a platform to publicly display efforts in integrating accessibility requirements into new and existing infrastructure, as per the RHFAC Program.

1.2. The Registry is specifically intended to allow building owners, property owners and/or managers to publicly account for and register:

1.2.1. Accessibility features that have been incorporated into buildings or properties in accordance with the RHFAC Program; and

1.2.2. The level of certification that has been achieved in accordance with the RHFAC Program.

2. While users of the Registry may ultimately use the RHFAC Registry public registrations to benefit the application of Diversity & Inclusion initiatives (for example, the proactive inclusion of persons with diverse disabilities through various inclusiveness programs), users acknowledge that such uses are beyond the scope of the Registry which is designed to function strictly as a service to centrally list and publicly display buildings or properties that are consistent with the RHFAC Program.

3. In accordance with the RHFAC Program, the Registry constitutes a neutral framework and uses terms and concepts designed to be broadly compatible with the requirements and guidance of RHFAC Program materials. All terms not defined herein shall be interpreted in accordance with the RHFAC Program.

4. The Registry is and is intended to operate strictly as a listing and public display service for buildings and properties that are rated and/or certified in accordance with the RHFAC Program. It was created for the purpose of allowing entities to register Projects that are rated and/or certified in accordance with the RHFAC Program and will be assigned serial numbers by the Registry.

CSA Group provides no services and undertakes no activities whatsoever in relation to facilitating the rating and/or certification and has no commercial interest whatsoever in the delivery, rating or certification of buildings or properties by the building or property owners, responsible parties and intended users other than the Registry listing and public display of the Projects in accordance with the RHFAC Program.
