

EDUCATION PRIORITIES - NEW BRUNSWICK

The Rick Hansen Foundation School Program (RHFSP) offers educators free resources to help youth (grades K-12) learn more about improving accessibility and inclusion in their schools and communities. These comprehensive materials correspond to curriculum and education priorities in New Brunswick.

EVERYONE AT THEIR BEST

- Provides opportunities to celebrate diversity
- Helps students learn to contribute to a culture of inclusion
- Fosters student leadership through real-life opportunities to act as agents of change
- Enhances students' sense of belonging to their schools and communities

INCLUSIVE EDUCATION POLICY

- Increases awareness and understanding of differences
- Promotes social cohesion, belonging, and positive interactions
- Creates an inclusive school and community through participation in project-based activities
- Emphasizes a culture of belonging and the value of diversity

ATLANTIC CANADA FRAMEWORK FOR ESSENTIAL GRADUATION LEARNING

- Develops knowledge, skills and attitudes to become responsible and caring people
- Helps students develop respect, empathy, and compassion
- Provides project-based, hands-on learning to develop innovative solutions
- Encourages students to support and advocate for others to achieve a fair and just society

POSITIVE LEARNING AND WORKING ENVIRONMENT

- Fosters a positive learning environment
- Emphasizes environments that are inclusive and respectful
- Enhances students' capacity for building community and increasing personal accountability
- Teaches inclusion and respect for diversity

STRENGTHENING INCLUSION, STRENGTHENING SCHOOLS

- Supports instruction and learning with materials designed using UDL framework
- Encourages equity, with materials reflecting diverse perspectives and encouraging inclusive attitudes
- Identifies students as difference makers and encourages positive behaviours within the school and community
- Fosters respect and empathy in students